CITY ATTORNEY

February 27, 1967

Mr. J. Robert Arnold
1120 Lincoln Bank Tower
Fort Wayne, Ind.

Dear Sir:

Would you please prepare an amendment to the 1967 salary ordinance changing the job classification and salaries of the following two men, and also an appropriation ordinance appropriating the necessary funds from the General Fund into the personal services item in the budget of the 1967 budget as follows:

Establish a job classification of Chief of Communications in the Signal Department at an annual salary of $9,000 per year.

Establish a job classification of Assistant Chief of Communications in the Signal Department at an annual salary of $8,000 per year.

Appropriate $1,200 from the unobligated balance of the General Fund, and transfer this amount to Account No. 8-1-115, Services Personal, in the 1967 budget of the Signal Department.

Appropriation of these funds is required in order to adequately compensate Harold Norton, who is being promoted from Chief Radio Engineer, at an annual salary of $8,000 in the 1967 Salary Ordinance, to $9,000 per year, and Eldon Wood, who is being promoted from Radio Engineer at an annual salary of $7,800 per year, to a salary of $9,000 per year.

Yours very truly,

I. H. McKathnie

Mr. John H. Robinson
Chairman Finance Committee
Fort Wayne Common Council
Fort Wayne, Indiana

Dear Mr. Robinson:

A modern, well planned communications system in the new City-County Building is of utmost importance.

For a number of months, Harold Norton, chief radio engineer with the Fort Wayne Signal Department, and his assistant, Eldon Wood, radio engineer, have been working very closely with Robert F. Miller, area sales supervisor of the General Telephone Company, in planning the complex telephone system in this building.

Mr. Miller has advised the Board of Works and myself that he knows of no one as knowledgeable in communications as Mr. Norton, and that he would like to continue working with him while this communications system is being designed.

These added responsibilities have caused Mr. Norton to spend considerable time on his own in keeping up with this work as well as supervising the dispatching in the Signal Department and maintenance of radios in the entire fleet of city vehicles.

In the very near future, a reorganization of the Signal Department will remove him from that department, and he will be given the title of chief of communications. He will be put on a level with the chiefs of the Police and Fire Departments to make up a panel of officials who must work out the mutual communications problems of these departments.

Some additional programs that will be put into effect are training for the civilian dispatchers, including their attendance at Police and Fire training schools when new candidates are appointed.

In order to properly compensate Mr. Norton and Mr. Wood for their added responsibilities under their new job titles,

February 27, 1967

I recommend that Mr. Norton's annual salary, which is now $8,000, be increased to $9,000, and that he be given the title of chief of communications; and that Mr. Wood's salary, which is now $7,800, be increased to $8,000 annually, and that he be given the title of assistant chief of communications.

Very truly yours,

Harold S. Zeis
Mayor
